TO ALL ELDERS AND MINISTERIAL SERVANTS IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT
#1

Dear Brothers,

Arrangements have been completed for the Kingdom Ministry School Course to be held in our Circuit. The course for Elders and Ministerial Servants will consist of 7-8 hours of instruction for that day divided into 2 three to four hour sections. Beginning at 8:00a.m. to 5:20p.m. for the Elders. And 8:00am to 3:35p.m. for the Ministerial Servants. Please bring a copy of your program that the CBOE will provide.

As a special note: Light refreshments will be provided. However, please be prepared to bring your own lunch.

Standard of Dress for Theocratic Schools: When attending one of the theocratic schools, such as the Kingdom Ministry School, Pioneer Service School, School for Congregation Elders, or School for Kingdom Evangelizers, all should dress in the same manner as they would when presenting a part on the program at a congregation meeting or when they visit Bethel. Thus, it would be appropriate for brothers to wear a tie and a jacket and for sisters to wear a skirt or a dress if that is the standard of dress in the land. (see S-147 May 2024)

Baptized wives are invited to attend to hear the last two talks of the school for either the elders or ministerial servants. They can arrive beginning at 3:50 p.m. for the Elders. And at 2:05 p.m. for the Ministerial Servants. The above Standard for Dress also applies.

Also attached are Lapel cards: Please note that there is no admission without Lapel card. CBOE should ensure that each elder or ministerial servant receives appropriate card.
